ASIA PACIFIC POPULATION BY COUNTRY IN 2022

Why File in Asia Pacific?

The Asia Pacific market comprises more than one third of the world's population. This is a diverse market which extends from India, to China, to Singapore, and to Australia and New Zealand. With so many people from different backgrounds, there are opportunities for any business engaging in this market.

With offices in Australia, New Zealand, Singapore, Hong Kong and Malaysia, DCC has experience 'throughout Asia Pacific' through indirect relationships with relevant IP offices and through a network of selected associates with additional local expertise.

The Asia Pacific region is a critical market for most businesses and there is a long history of committed engagement between governments in this region aimed to create a predictable operating environment designed to encourage investment in the region. Some key agreements include:

ASSOCIATION OF SOUTH EAST ASIAN NATIONS (ASEAN)

- Membership: Indonesia, Malaysia, Philippines, Singapore, Brunei, Cambodia, Laos, Myanmar, Thailand, Vietnam
- The ASEAN Declaration was signed in 1967 with parties committing to political, economic and socio-cultural stability and security. The declaration provides for rules based economic integration, with a focus on market economy principles and multi-lateral trade rules to eliminate barriers to regional economic trade.

REGIONAL COMPREHENSIVE ECONOMIC PARTNERSHIP (RCEP)

- Membership: Australia, New Zealand, Brunei, Cambodia, China, Japan, Laos, Singapore, Thailand, Vietnam.

Entering into force on 1 January 2022, the RCEP established a modern and comprehensive free trade platform in respect of goods, services, investment, economic and technical cooperation. The partnership promotes adherence to the World Trade Organisation rules and aims to facilitate e-commerce through enabling an environment for businesses to trade digitally in the region and support consumer confidence in the online environment.

REGIONAL FREE TRADE AGREEMENTS

- In addition to the RCEP, there are many free trade agreements across jurisdictions in South East Asia and Oceania. For example, Australia has been active in driving the free trade discussion and has bi-lateral free trade agreements with New Zealand, Singapore, Thailand, Malaysia, South Korea, Japan, China, Hong Kong and Indonesia. The active Government engagement in trade liberalisation provides businesses with significantly greater certainty and market access.

PACIFIC AGREEMENT ON CLOSER ECONOMIC RELATIONS PLUS (PACER PLUS)

- Membership: Australia, New Zealand, Samoa, Kiribati, Tonga, Solomon Islands, Niue, Cook Islands, Nauru*, Tuvalu*, Vanuatu*
*(membership awaiting ratification)
- PACER PLUS entered into force on 13 December 2020, bringing the Pacific Island countries into closer economic relations with Australia and New Zealand. The agreement aims to provide a stable, secure and prosperous region with open and transparent policy developments and greater engagement.
